

“Perhaps with knowing will come caring, and with caring, impetus toward the needed sea change of attitude, one that combines the wisdom of science and the sensitivity of art to create an enduring ethic.”

Sylvia Earle

SpectorDance

831-384-1050

SpectorDance@earthlink.net

3343 Paul Davis Drive, Marina, CA 93933

www.spectordance.org

Visit us on Facebook!

See video samples at www.youtube.com/spectordance

Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute
& SpectorDance present

Ocean

a new dance media project about the ocean and climate change

Ocean: Lily Nguyen; photo by William Roden/New Dawn Studios

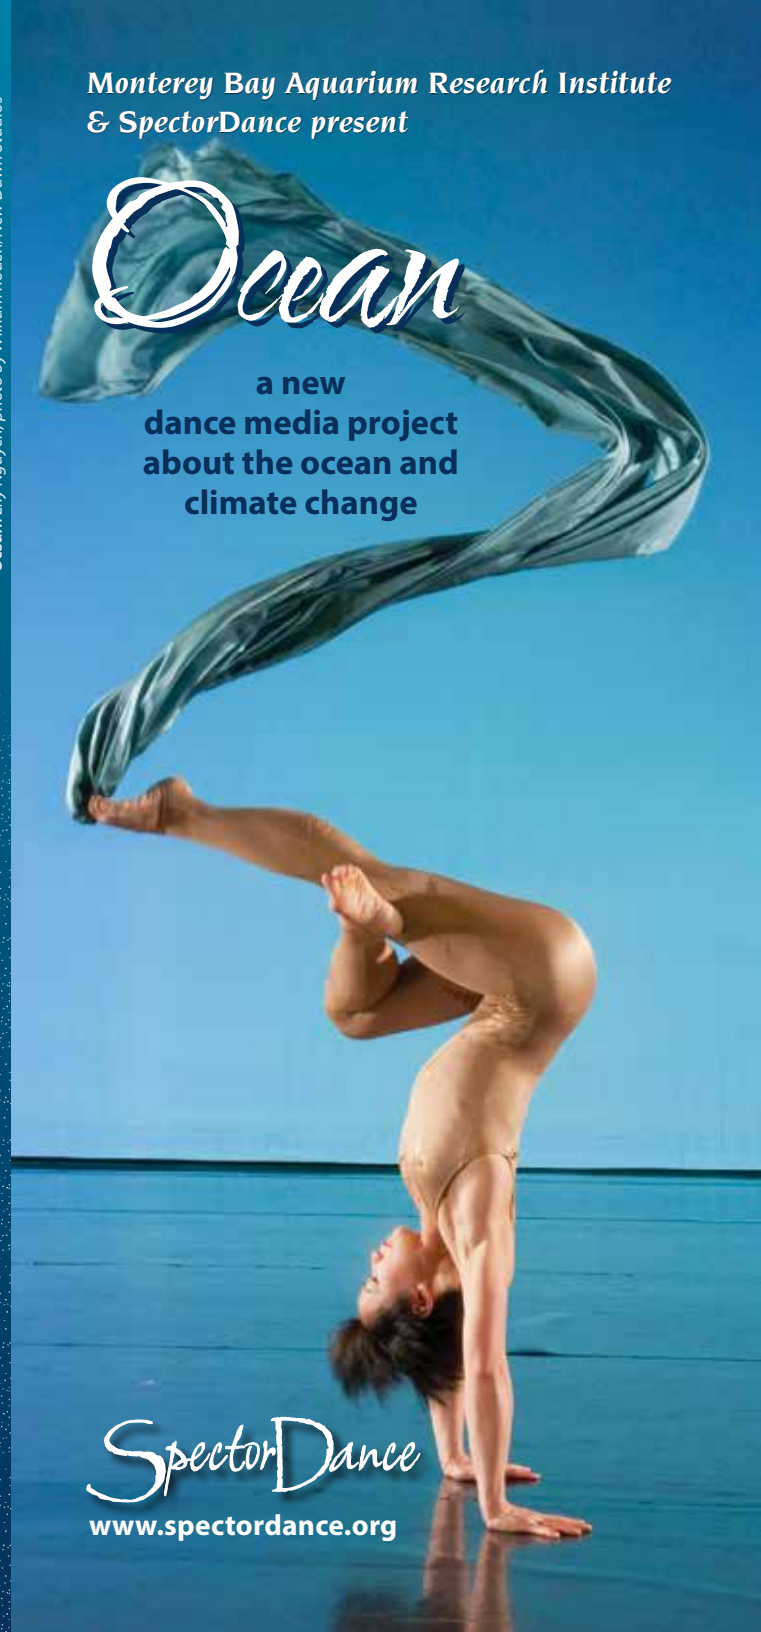

Lily Nguyen, Maria Basile, Joshua Lau; photo by William Roden/New Dawn Studios

Major funding: Nancy Buck Ransom Foundation, Tom's of Maine, Community Foundation for Monterey County, Kalliopeia Foundation, National Endowment for the Arts, Monterey Peninsula Foundation, Turner Foundation, Rumsey Foundation, Arts Council for Monterey County, Chapman Foundation, Harden Foundation, Rosemary Luke, Monterey County Weekly Fund, Barnet J. Segal Charitable Trust, Dunsbaugh-Dalton Foundation, Pebble Beach Company Foundation, Target, Puffin Foundation, Amy Anderson & George Somero, Hal & Jacque Eastman, Lenore & Dale Meyer, Rita & Luis Echenique Charitable Foundation, Yellow Brick Road

SpectorDance is a 501© 3 non-profit organization. Donations are gratefully accepted and tax deductible to the full extent allowed by California Law. EIN# 93-1203319

SpectorDance
www.spectordance.org

Joshua Lau, Lily Nguyen, Maria Basile, Vicky Alvarez; photos by William Roden/New Dawn Studios

Ocean is a creative collaboration of artists, scientists, educators, and presenters working to expand perspectives, stimulate discussion, and contribute original solutions to the challenges facing one of the Earth's most critical resources.

Ocean is available for booking

Presenting options include:

- A live dance media performance
- A pre-performance lecture with an ocean scientist from MBARI
- An academic session with an MBARI scientist based on California Educational Standards and/or a movement session with a dancer from SpectorDance based on Visual And Performing Arts Content Standards

For booking information contact:
Heather Kirk
831-384-1050
SpectorDance@earthlink.net

Choreographer

Fran Spector Atkins

Media Integration

William Roden

Music

Colin Farish and Coyote Jump featuring John-Carlos Perea courtesy Canyon Records

Scientific Coordinator

Kyra Schlining from MBARI

Education Specialist

Dr. George Matsumoto from MBARI

Filmed Interviews

Dr. Sylvia Earle (National Geographic Explorer, author), Dr. Peter Brewer, (ocean chemist at MBARI and member of the IPCC committee awarded a Nobel Prize in conjunction with Al Gore), Dr. James Barry (benthic biologist at MBARI), Dr. Kenneth Coale (chemical oceanographer and former director of Moss Landing Marine Labs), Erin Loury (Moss Landing Marine Labs graduate student), Dr. James Lindholm (Division of Science and Environmental Policy at California State University, Monterey Bay), and Kip Evans and Chuck Davis (ocean photographers)

Video Footage

The Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute, William Roden (New Dawn Studios), Kip Evans (Mountain and Sea Productions), Chris Gage Photography and Linda Kuhnz (Abreojos Diving Adventures)

